

A dearest thank you to:

My wife and partner Fernanda: thank you for your love, creativity, quirkiness, and your patience and support. I didn't know I could love as I love you.

This album is dedicated to my incredible mom, Deborah, for all her love and support in every way. I want to honor my brother Galen, dad and step-mother Gary and Marcia, step-brother Chris, Bill and Paula, and John Paul for all the family love.

Thanks Bart and Glen West for your help and feedback related to this project. Thank you in particular to friends Sophie Webber, Nisa Wongthipkongka, Amos Gillespie, Caleb Willitz, Mike Smith, Trevor Watkin, and Scott Welty. Thanks, Sarah Boudreau, for your excellent photography.

Thank you to my students, past, present, and future at the Old Town School of Folk Music and beyond. Teaching you renews me. I need that.

Thank you to the fellow musicians who made these pieces "sing": Sophie Webber, Rob Clearfield, Jinty McTavish, Genevieve Tabby, Sabrina Tabby and Rita Andrade.

Thank you, Katinka Kleijn, for your continued cello inspiration and Bill Furry for your musical significance in my life.

Thank you to Rick Barnes of Rax Trax for recording and meticulously mixing this album with me— and to Howie Weinberg for the superb analog audio mastering.

This album is supported by:

Deborah Brothers, Gary Styzens and Marcia Armstrong, William Furry and Paula Pugh Romanau, Michael and Diane Dolesh, Jody Kienzler, and Lori and Jimmy Chamberlin— as well as the following Kickstarter campaign contributors:

The Armstrong Family in memory of Kay Armstrong (with Donald, Marcia, Chris, Cathy, Robert, and Mark.)
